

Easy now...

Staff Sgt. Chris Long, 16th Civil Engineer Squadron Pest Management flight, calms a Whippoorwill which was recovered from the 55th Helicopter Maintenance Unit Hangar. The nocturnal bird, which inhabits the woodlands surrounding Hurlburt Field, was released shortly after this photograph. See Page 10 for more about the pest management flight and the types of services it provides for the base.

Photograph by Master Sgt. Kevin Hoch